OLD TOWN STOCKHOLM

Join us for a walk to experience an exotic, multicultural mix of unique restaurants and shops that offer delicious food samples while you learn about the Nordic's fantastic food, spirits and culture. Much of this tour will take place in "The Old Town", which was the whole city of Stockholm in the old days, now a place for the best Stockholm has to offer.

Before embarking on this culinary adventure you will explore a bit of Stockholm's history told by the story of a 17th century Swedish warship. The 'Vasa' is a national treasure and your guide will take you on an up close and personal tour of this fascinating ship and its tragic fate.

Next you will visit the unique "Sweden: Spirits of a Nation" Spirit Museum. Here your senses will come alive as you are guided through the seasons of the year given shape through artistic sceneries, scents, tastes and music. Your knowledgeable guide will also walk you through the exciting "Flavours of Sweden" tasting where you can delve deep into the nuances of Swedish whisky and learn the basics of spicing and flavoring vodka and snaps, including the chance to flavor your own snaps.

With your appetite now aroused, a local culinary expert will meet you in Old Town where you begin tasting your way through the historical Gamla Stan.

Along your journey you will taste delicious food samples at some of the trendiest market halls and dining places in town while learning about the food, history and culture of Scandinavia.
